Hearts of Hope: Presbyterian Women @ FPC

Oh, What a Night! Our "At the Hop" event featuring Denny Cole and music from the 50s, 60s & 70s was, well, a hit! The dancing wasn't too shabby either. Thanks to everyone who made the night a success from Denny & Barb Cole, our amazing women who sold tickets, decorated the hall and provided snacks and beverages and everyone who bought tickets. Some are suggesting an "encore".... stay tuned.

April 10 we will meet in the Chapel and will be hosting an April baby shower for Grace House/Coastal Choices. We'll be gifting all things for new babies and donations are gratefully welcome - OR, better yet, come and enjoy the fun. We meet at 10 for Bible Study followed by our meeting/shower at 10:30.

Want to get news of our Presbyterian Women's group or learn more about what we're up to? Reach out to Norma Carter

New Directory In The Making!!!

We will be taking pictures for the "snowbirds" first on Sundays, April 16, 23, and 30 in Eubank Hall after worship. We will finish the rest of the pictures in July or August with the directory being completed in September or October. This will be a full directory with lots of information about our church family. Thank you for being patient with me on making a new directory.

SOCK HOP FUND RAISER PRESENTED BY THE PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

A night of great music, food, dancing, and lots of fun!

"Pink Ladies" from Grease joined us too... Barb Cole dancing to her husband Denny's great music! (Above)

Great turnout....lots of people. Dancing the "Stroll", couples dancing and the "YMCA" dance.

Now what is Rev. George dancing to....The "Monster Mash"?

Check out the pink print outfit far right...does that bring back memories?

Even a dance from the "50's" ... "the Fonz"
